e.g.1- Why is environmental protection important?

Firstly, environmental protection is vital because a bad environment can cause fatal problems. To be specific, the decreasing of forest and the increasing of desert area will result in sand storms in both rural and urban regions.

e.g.2- Reducing stress by exercising

e.g.2- Reducing stress by exercising

In the first place, regular exercising is good for our health. That is to say, it's not only capable of helping us lose weight, but alleviating tension and pressure so as to maintain the mental health as well.
